Re: the editorship of "the Daily Post"

Register

Capt. Baker came to see me to-day about the Daily Post. He is chairman of the Directors. He tells me that Miss Dawson has for some time past been in the Madras Lunatic Asylum. I understand that the Directors gave her a lease of the press & the question that the Directors are anxious to decide is whether the lease became null & void owing to Miss D's insanity. On enquiry I found that the lease is made out in the name of Miss Dawson, her heirs, assigns & administrators. I also gathered that Miss D's sister had applied to the Madras High Court to be appointed Guardian. I told Capt. Baker that in my private opinion the lease could not be considered invalid owing to the fact that the contract includes Miss D's heirs & administrators & advised him to wait for the High Court decision. The business of the Daily Post appears to be carried on by the Assistant who has a power of

W. J. E. P. B.—11 1911.—5,000.

attorney from Miss Dawson?

Perhaps You can find Something to show what the law is in regard to a contract in wh. the party becomes insane.

A further point is this. Capt. Bate states that Mr. Ormond is carrying on the D.P, but I informed him that I understood some Indian gentleman, who called a few days ago on his Resident, was acting as editor. I said that no one has applied for permission to edit & publish in this D[istrict] & that this shd be done. Capt. B. said that he knew nothing about this Indian gentleman!

PBG

The lease ~~granted~~ taken by Miss. Dawson seems to be quite valid, since she was apparently quite sound in mind at the time it was made. Section 12 of the Indian Contract Act (IX of 1872) defines what is a sound mind for the purpose of contracting. Miss Dawson's subsequent insanity will not, it seems, invalidate the lease granted by her. According to Woodfall, "a lease is a contract for the exclusive possession of lands or tenements for some certain years or other determinate period."

Contracts are not in general invalidated by the subsequent insanity of one of the parties. Vide p. 405 of Leake on Contracts. Please see p. 400, para 817, of Halsbury's Laws of England. Vol. 19.

If the contract entered into between the Daily Post Limited ~~is not~~ and Miss Dawson is not of the nature contemplated by section 40 of the Indian Contract Act, (i.e. if the contract contains nothing to the effect that it should be performed by Miss Dawson herself), it does not become invalid by reason of Miss Dawson's insanity

Under Sec. 201 of the Indian Contract Act,

Mr. Ormerod cannot continue to act as the agent of Miss. Dawson, after she became of unsound mind, since an agency is terminated by the principal becoming of unsound mind. It seems that the editing, printing & publishing of the Daily Post can no longer be carried on in the name of Miss. Dawson by her attorney Mr. Ormerod, as the agency has terminated.

Under Section 209 of the Indian Contract Act, Mr. Ormerod must take all reasonable steps for the protection and preservation of the interests entrusted to him by Miss Dawson.

If approved, further action in the matter may be put off until the order of the High Court of Madras is passed in respect of the administration of Miss. Dawson's Estate.

Very Good

CAS 13/8/18 AS 13/8/18

PMW 14/8

Is there any reason why Mr. Ormerod should not apply for temporary permission to print & publish in Miss DJ behalf. Such permission will apparently not affect Miss DJ position. From the Bombay Leaders Cuttings it was a short time ago it appears that the Cutcher was not terminated. The Bank of the Press was to Miss Dawson, her heirs etc.

Regarding the question of Lease taken by Miss. Dawson, it was submitted that it was quite valid as Mrs. Dawson

S

It seems that Miss. Dawson's insanity has terminated Mr. Ormerod's agency, though the validity of the lease taken by Miss. Dawson has not been affected by her subsequent insanity. What is nature of the agency is and whether he has such interest in the business of 'the Daily Post' that the agency cannot be terminated to the prejudice of such interest, are perhaps questions which have to be settled in a Court of Law.

If approved, no action need be taken at present.

As already* pointed, under § 201 of the Indian Contract Act Miss. Dawson's unsoundness of mind has put an end to Mr. Ormerod's agency. The Power of attorney granted to Mr. Ormerod has become inoperative immediately after Miss. Dawson's insanity.

Mr. Ormerod is evidently in error in presuming that everything is duly done in conformity with the Law

It is stated that the High Court of Madras has passed no orders as yet on the matter.

If it be true that Miss. Dawson has recovered of her unsoundness of mind has ceased her proceedings in Lunacy with the High Court of Madras will have been or be set aside

Sir,

I consider it my duty to ask you to kindly give the following your attention, though I regret having to trouble you in the matter. In May, Reuters agency sent us some handbills for distribution. Coming from their firm I never dreamt of their requiring scrutiny, & I distributed them. I now learn they are the subject of enquiry as they are stated to be part of a seditious distribution. I do not know why, but I presume on account of the right-hand corner sentence forming a link in a seditious appeal? I have written Reuters on the subject as I feel sure they have been trapped, just as I have, but I feel I ought to place the matter before you also. I have of course refused the rest of the series referred to by Reuters, & trust the mistake which I have unintentionally been led into will be of no importance. I have Sir.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

BANGALORE

Friend-in-Need Society,

FOR THE YEAR 1890.

In this yearly account of the working of the Society, primary consideration is given to its financial condition, as being of most importance. Its funded capital remains at Rs. 8,127—1—3, which sum, together with Rs. 1,516—12—7 collected for the new Poor House, is available as a reserve, to meet exceptional demands.

Independent of the above, the year opened with a credit of Rs. 829—15—2 in the Madras Bank and in the hands of the Superintendent. The balance at the close of the year was Rs. 627—10—9, thus showing a small reduction of Rs. 202—4—5 in the Society's funds, as the result of the year's operations.

The actual receipts during the year 1890, exclusive of the previous balance, came to Rs. 9,758—11—5, as against Rs. 9,090—6—2 of the previous year, and the actual expenditure to Rs. 9,960—15—10, as against Rs. 10,288—4—9. The new provision in the Rules for the preparation of an annual Budget of receipts and expenditure will, it is hoped, ensure an equilibrium being maintained hereafter between the two; but any hard and fast rule may not always apply; as the prosperity of all charitable institutions and their expenditure necessarily fluctuate, the former being dependent upon the extent of support which they receive from the Public, and the latter upon the extent of the demands to be met. It may be mentioned that the utmost has been done by the Society by personal appeals to the residents of the Station and by advertisements, to bring its claims prominently to the notice of the public, with the result that the total amount of contributions from subscriptions, donations, &c., came altogether to Rs. 2,158—5—6, or Rs. 102—2—1 more than in the previous year; but as noted by the Resident in his remarks on last year's Report, this sum falls miserably short of what ought to be realized, where every one in the Station, who is blessed with means, to acknowledge in a practical manner his obligation to subscribe to the Institution. For instance, it is painful to notice, that of the 122 members who cheerfully subscribe for amusement Rs. 3—8—0 and upwards monthly to the Station Gymkhana, and a like sum to the Station Library, only 22 subscribe Rs. 1—12—4 on an average to a Society, which besides fulfilling its object in the relief of suffering humanity, frees them from annoyance by beggars, and relieves them entirely from the liability to pay a poor-tax.

On the other hand, it is just that the Society should acknowledge its lasting obligation to the Government and to the Municipality for their liberal grants of Rs. 5,400—0—0 and Rs. 600—0—0 respectively, towards its funds, through which it had been enabled with the above sum of Rs. 2,158—5—6 contributed by the Public, to relieve every real case of distress that has been brought to their notice during the year, and to maintain the Institution on an efficient footing. Further particulars in respect to receipts and expenditure, may be obtained on reference to the abstract statement given in the Appendix marked A.

The only item requiring explanation under the former head, is that of Rs. 539—0—0 realized by the refund of loans, as contrasted with Rs. 770—9—0 expended. In this matter, the Society endeavours to act up to the principle of its being really a friend-in-need to those requiring assistance to do something for themselves; but the result which has attended the grant of such loans, though favorable in a few instances, has proved so unsatisfactory in many, that the Executive Committee have had latterly to withdraw almost entirely from this form of relief.

The work done in the Institution yielded a clear profit of Rs. 75—4—9, chiefly derived from the sale of raggi flour, and from stones broken by the inmates. Rs. 12—12—3 was derived from making up some khaki clothing for the Mysore Barr; but the work had to be discontinued from its being found that the Society with its inexperienced labour could not compete with advantage against skilled native tailors, who are able to turn out work at marvellously low rates.

In respect to the several heads of expenditure, a satisfactory decrease of Rs. 590—9—9 is noticeable in the item of rations for inmates and out-door recipients, and of Rs. 465—4—3 in money allowances, as compared with the charges under those heads in the previous year. It has been found feasible to substitute raggi, which is a cheaper and more nutritious diet, for rice as a dole to out-door paupers: also the action of the Quarterly Revision Sub-Committee has been most beneficial in striking off all cases found to be undeserving, in substituting in many cases doles of grain for money allowances, and in insisting on all those who are in any way capable of doing work attending the Poor House to labour for at least three hours a day—the men in breaking stones, and the women in grinding and sifting raggi. The admitted evils arising from out-door relief are thus minimised; yet they cannot be wholly removed until residence for all paupers is made compulsory by the construction of a new Poor House. At present, owing to limited accommodation, it is found necessary to make exemption in favour of women with large families, and those paupers to whom lodging outside is provided by friends or relatives.

The expenditure in the repair of buildings—Rs. 1,062—0—3, may be regarded as heavy, seeing that Rs. 1,141—14—0 had been spent on them the year before; but it was essentially needed to make the roofs water-tight. The internal arrangements of the Female East Indian Ward were much improved by the construction of cubicles with a movable curtain in front of each, by which privacy is ensured to the occupants. The Honorary Secretary avails himself of this opportunity to acknowledge his obligation to the Lady Superioress of the Convent, for the excellent plan, which was adopted from her's in the Magdalene Asylum.

An available room in the Caste Ward having been fitted up during the year as a Laundry, at a cost of Rs. 144—14—3, the inmates, both East Indians and Natives, are now required to wash their own clothes, as well as those of helpless paupers. They have fallen in with this desirable arrangement after a little demur; and the services of the washerman, who had been for years on the establishment, were lately dispensed with. It may also be here mentioned, that those inmates who are able to work, take it in turns to act as cooks, and thus the Society are instrumental in teaching useful lessons of economy and self-help to the poor.

The outlay under several minor heads was heavier than in the year previous, but not to any marked extent. The amount given out in loans, Rs. 770—9—0, was Rs 406 more than in the previous year. The cost of deporting loafers Rs. 277—1—2 came also to more by Rs. 90—2—3; and this, notwithstanding that the rule requiring them to do a week's work in the Poor House prior to receiving such assistance, was strictly enforced.

The Society was registered during the year under the Companies' Act XXI of 1860, for which a fee of Rs. 50 was paid. The measure was deemed advisable, to enable the Society to sue, and to be sued. The Rules of the Society have been revised by the Committee, and are now very complete.

In response to the appeal made towards the close of the year for subscriptions to a new Poor House, Rs. 1,516—12—7 was received, which sum has been augmented by further contributions of Rs. 948—8—0 since, and by the promise by Mr. T. R. A. Thumboo Chetty of funds sufficient for the construction of one of the native tenements. The Society is indebted to the Municipality for the grant of an excellent site near the Railway Station; but the success of the undertaking is dependent mainly on future contributions, and on the measure of support which may be expected from Government. The work is one which is felt to be much required, not only on sanitary grounds, but also to enable the Society to arrange for the better working of the Institution in all its branches.

These observations in respect to the financial position of the Society, will, it is hoped, afford the public a guarantee that its funds are carefully administered. But the work done cannot be gauged simply by pecuniary results. To judge of it, a reference has to be made to the number of cases, dealt with by the Executive Committee at their weekly meetings. These reached the high figure of 933, as compared with 832 in the previous year. In 602 cases orders were given for admission into the Society's Poor House; in 166 out-door relief was sanctioned; in 80 assistance was given by payment of railway fares at an aggregate cost of Rs. 277—1—2; in 55 donations were given, and in 30 temporary loans on security. Every one of these cases formed the subject of minute and patient inquiry, which was made with the assistance of the Society's Overseer, and the Clergy of the denominations to which the paupers belonged. In the case of strangers, their relatives and former employers were communicated with, and every effort was made to obtain situations for them before deporting them.

The doors of the Poor House are open to all classes. 288 persons were admitted as inmates during the year. Of these, there were:—

	Men.	Women.	Children.
Europeans and Eurasians ...	76	46	39
Native Caste	22	14	0
Native non-caste	24	44	23
Total...	122	104	62

The average daily number of Europeans resident, was...	20
Of Caste Natives	9
Of non-caste Natives	22
Total...	51

The average monthly cost of dieting came

For Europeans and Eurasians to	Rs. 5—3—6
For Natives to	„ 2—11—3

The cost of the ration to the former has been increased by Rs. 1-14-2 from greater attention being paid to variety in diet: the quantity of bread has been increased, eggs are given on Fridays, and a plain pudding and fruit on Sundays. Raggi forms a regular part of the diet also, and although disliked by strangers at first, is found to agree with them. The children also thrive well on it.

The health of the inmates was good during the year. No epidemic prevailed in the town. Five deaths occurred in the Poor House and two in Hospital. These deaths were entirely due to old age. The sanitary arrangements under the Medical Officer receive careful attention. Visitors to the Institution have noticed with approval the cheerful aspect of the generality of the inmates, and the care paid to cleanliness and comfort.

The out-door recipients of relief number 58, of whom 44 receive doles in grain, with a small weekly allowance of 2 or 3 annas, for the purchase of condiments and firewood, and 14 small allowances in money. The continuance of the latter is considered necessary in the case of a few Europeans; but is deprecated from its tendency to be regarded in the light of a pension, and being calculated to foster habits of idleness and improvidence among the class from which the paupers are drawn. As before mentioned, such of the out-door paupers as are able to do any work, join the female inmates in working in the raggi room.

Although the truth of Our Lord's saying, "Ye have the poor always with you," is of general application, and is accepted by all, yet those who do not mingle with the poor can have but a very imperfect conception of the amount of destitution and misery prevalent in Bangalore, especially among the East Indian community, and which distress it is the special effort of the Society to alleviate on the basis laid down in their rules, and as set forth in this Report. It cannot be asserted that sufficient aid has invariably reached all who are deserving of it; still of this the public may be assured that the operations of the Society have been not only largely instrumental in checking idleness and imposture; but have been the means also of saving numbers from starvation, besides affording food and shelter to several helpless and friendless creatures in their declining years.

The routine work in connection with the establishment falls chiefly on the Honorary Secretary and the Honorary Treasurer; but they are aided greatly in the management of the Institution by the members of the Executive Committee, some of whom are praiseworthy for the regularity of their attendance at the weekly meetings and in their visits to the Poor House; also they are indebted to Mr. Jack, a retired Sub-Engineer, who has kindly supervised the expenditure on works, and prepared the necessary plans and estimates. The kind services rendered by two or three of the Lady Visitors require further acknowledgment; as well as the treats given to poor inmates by Miss Mullins, Messrs Darling, Foregard, Sabaputhy Moodelliar and Kristnasawmy Moodelliar. Mr. T. Cribb, the Superintendent of the Poor House, has discharged his duties conscientiously and well.

It is hoped, that in course of time many more may be induced to aid the Society by gifts or by devotion of labour or time to so good a cause; for all may be persuaded that to such is given the blessed assurance that "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Honorary Secretary,
Friend-in-Need Society.

RULES
OF THE
Bangalore Friend-in-Need Society.

Objects of the Society.

1. The objects of the Society are the relief of the deserving poor of all classes and the suppression of mendicity. The means employed are the temporary admission into the Asylum of homeless and destitute persons, who are not infirm or disabled, the provision of a permanent place of abode for the aged and helpless paupers of the Civil and Military Station, in which they may be lodged, fed and clothed, the distribution of doles in money or grain to such of the latter class as are unable, for reasons satisfactory to the Committee, to avail themselves of the advantages of the Asylum, the provision of suitable employment for the able-bodied, and strict investigation of the circumstances of all applicants for relief with a view to the exposure of imposture.

N. B. No person receiving relief from the Society shall, on any pretence whatever, be permitted to beg, or to solicit alms in any shape from the public, on pain of immediate withdrawal of all aid from the Society. REPORT

OF THE

GIRDLESTONE INCURABLE WARD,

FOR THE YEAR 1890.

As the management of the Incurable Ward is entrusted to the Friend-in-Need Society, and it thus forms part of the same Institution, a Report of the working of this branch is appended.

The funds for its support are derived chiefly from a grant of Rs. 100 a month made by the Municipality, supplemented by contributions from the public, which came during the year to Rs. 371—5—0.

The opening balance at the commencement of the year 1890 was Rs. 300—11—9, and at its close Rs. 270—2—5. Independent of this, Rs. 1,486—11—7, has been funded in the Mysore Government Savings' Bank towards the construction of a building.

In the meantime, the incurables are accommodated in a building belonging to the Friend-in-Need Society, for which a charge of Rs. 15 is made as rent to secure the lien of the Society on the building; but it is nominal, as they contribute on the other hand Rs. 15 monthly as a donation to the Incurable Ward.

The receipts for the year came to Rs. 1,571—5—0 against an expenditure of Rs. 1,601—14—4.

The Native subscribers number 38, but more might join, and many might display more regularity in the payment of the small monthly subscriptions, for which they have put their names down.

The establishment, consisting of a Ward-Cooly, Nurse, Dhoby, Caste-Cook, and Sweeper, was maintained at a cost of Rs. 222—0—0. Hon. Surgeon Pereira receives also a small fee of Rs. 120 yearly for medical supervision.

The diet and sanitation of the Incurables are strictly attended to. The former costs on an average Rs. 2—12—1 per mensem.

The number of inmates now in the Institution is 30. 18 were admitted during the year, 7 left and 2 died. There are some very old people in the Ward. One of them named Leah, is a centegenarian. Several of the cases are very sad, and deserving of sympathy.

The public are invited to inspect the Institution, which is deserving of greater public support.

RAGGI FLOUR OF VERY SUPERIOR QUALITY

1ST SORT ANNAS 2, 2ND AS. 1—6, 3RD A. 1.

A nutritious diet for Children, and well suited for gruel, cakes and blanc-mange.

Extract from the Chemical Examiner of Madras.

"I have examined it, and find it to be a sample of very uniformly—though not very finely ground Flour, containing a small proportion of the outer coat of the grain. The total exclusion of this outer coat is by no means desirable, as the nutritive value of the grain is thereby decreased. The nutritious properties of raggi are well known and need no certificate from me, and I hope you will succeed in extending its use among the public."

Sir,

S. 54 With reference to your No.5535 of this date addressed to the Editor of the "Daily Post", I have the honour to state that the editing, printing and publishing of this paper continue to be carried on in the name of Miss A. E. Dawson by her attorney (myself) pending an order of the High Court of Madras in respect to the administration of her Estate.

I understand that when an application was made to the above Court, the Judge said that the matter must stand over for a fortnight - apparently for the purpose of ascertaining if her illness was permanent or temporary.

I am informed also that the lady who is regarded as next heir, her eldest sister, has given instructions that the application be again put before the Court.

In view of these facts I venture to express the hope that the Hon'ble the Resident will not press for an immediate change, which might be prejudicial to the interests of Miss Dawson's estate as well as to those of the Press and the property connected with it.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Bangalore,

Dear Sir,

S. 58 In reply to your D.O.No.7169 of this date:

I understand that the High Court of Madras has passed no orders yet, and that the delay that has occurred ~~cannot~~ must be attributed to the wish of that Court to have the consent of all Miss Dawson's relations to the appointment of her eldest sister as Trustee. One, at least, of those relations is in England.

As regards the last paragraph of your letter I may state that the latest medical reports are to the effect that Miss Dawson has recovered. Seeing that I am carrying the business on, in her name, under a Power of Attorney, I think there can be little doubt that everything is being done in conformity with the law.

Yours truly,

Harry Osmond

Dear Mr Wardlaw.

As Chairman of the Bangalore Ladies Club? may I ask the favour of your informing me, if there are any objections to the Directors re-appointing Miss Dawson as Editor and Manager of the paper?

Yours truly
J. A. Baker.

Apparently Miss Dawson has recovered from her unsoundness of mind, and is capable of editing and managing "The Daily Post". There seems to be no objection in her being re-appointed as Editor & Manager of the paper.

Draft reply sent for approval.

if Miss Dawson applies for permission to edit the Daily Post vice Mr H. Gomarod, a fresh order in her favour will be passed. I presume Mr Anderson will continue to print & publish the newspapers and periodicals printed at the Daily Post Press or will Miss Dawson resume this responsibility also? She can state this in her application.
